

M. CAMBON SAILS AWAY FOR HOME.

French Ambassador Warmly Comments Upon Cordiality Between This Country and His—Commercial Relations.

Jules Cambon, the French Ambassador to the United States, and his wife sailed for France to-day on the liner La Savoie.

"I am very sorry that no action has been taken by Congress on the reciprocity treaty between the United States and France," said the Ambassador, "but the past year has been full of good feeling between the two countries, and I hope it will continue. I also look forward to better commercial relations between us, as it would be a benefit to both countries."

"The Rochambeau statue ceremonies had a lot to do with the present cordial situation."

"Of course, the French people feel gratified that the Panama route has been accepted."

"I am leaving a little earlier than usual because of my wife's wish to return home. You see, our son has just left college for his vacation, and is naturally anxious to see his mother. I will return in about four months."

Mrs. Cambon, who a few weeks ago arrived in this country on her first visit, said:

"I think the American people are extremely pleasant, and I hope to come over again. What struck me most was the independent ways of the American women. Nothing seems to confuse them. Their style of dress I admire. A plain woman in America makes herself look pretty by a few ideas in dress. That is an art attained by very few French women."

M. Laroque, a commercial envoy from France, whose business it is to visit the French Consulates all over the world and report to the Government, also sailed on the liner.

Others who sailed were Viscount Cholet, Charles V. Gould, M. L. Hermito, J. P. Plode, Mrs. J. A. Peterson.

Comprouler Grout Arranges for Handling Out the Checks To-Morrow for the June and July Salaries.

School teachers of all the boroughs of the city will to-morrow receive their checks for June and July, and will have the money for use during their summer vacations. This was made possible by the determination of the Comptroller to close this account with the close of the school year. In this he enlisted the aid of the Auditing Bureau of the Board of Education and kept his own Auditors in the Finance Department at the task until it was completed.

"These payrolls, it was announced at the Comptroller's office, which contain the names of between ten and eleven thousand teachers, all reached the Finance Department by the evening of Tuesday, June 24. By direction of Comptroller Grout, William McKinney, Chief Auditor of Accounts, kept his full staff of auditors at work on the payrolls, which were completed on Wednesday evening and went into the hands of the City Paymaster to-day."

"The system of distribution adopted by Comptroller Grout (will be employed, so that the payrolls will be in the hands of every school principal to-morrow evening, thus insuring the payment to the teachers of their salaries for June and July before the close of school on Friday."

Comprouler Grout has been particularly solicitous in the matter of paying teachers since assuming office, and probably never before have the teachers in all the boroughs composing the greater city been more promptly paid than through the present system. This is attested by the fact that the payment involves the expenditure of over two million four hundred thousand dollars.

Four young girls who graduated today from Public School No. 61 had a distressing experience on their way from their homes to the school in a coach. The coach ran over and seriously injured nine-year-old Bessie Teal, of No. 1247 Fulton avenue. The accident took place on Fulton avenue, just in the rear of the school.

Bessie Teal was playing with marbles when the coach came along. It was driven by John Farrell, of No. 670 Courtlandt avenue. One of Bessie's marbles rolled into the gutter. She made a dash after it, and ran directly into Farrell's horses. He pulled the animals in very abruptly, but not quick enough to prevent one of the wheels of the coach from running over the little girl. She was removed to Lebanon Hospital seriously injured.

Policeman O'Brien, of the Morrisania Police Station, arrested Farrell, and later arranged him before Magistrate "Tommy" in the Morrisania Police Court. The Magistrate ordered a complaint drawn against the driver, and said that Farrell should have driven slowly enough when passing the school to have enabled him to have avoided running over the child, or any others that were about. He then carried the prisoner for arraignment, pending the result of the examination.

SHOES for Go-Aways

All Sorts of Good Summer Shoes at Little Prices

OUT-OF-DATE SHOES have no value to New Yorkers—you wouldn't count them cheap at any price. Such shoes never come to Wanamaker's, no matter how great the price-temptation. On the other hand, so great is our control of shoe conditions that we are constantly able to secure vast quantities of serviceable, well-made shoes, in styles that are above reproach to sell at prices so low that out-of-date shoes are worthless beside them.

Of all the thousands of pairs of shoes bought for this June Sale, scarcely any were made previous to January First of this year. And every pair came from a worthy factory.

Here are hints of a few—that suggest the values of tens of thousands more:

WOMEN'S OXFORDS at $2
Finest grades of black Kidskins as well as patent leather, made with welted soles of high-grade oak-tanned leather; really worth a dollar more.

WOMEN'S OXFORDS at $1.20
Kidskin Oxfords, with tips of kid or patent leather; turned soles; medium heels; worth $2.

WOMEN'S TAN KID BOOTS, $1.50
Tan kid, ideal for country wear, and not too plentiful at full price, making this chance of paying only half price doubly attractive.

MEN'S TAN SHOES at $2.25
Kid and calf, in most desirable shapes; all welted and stitched soles, and all $3 to $4 values.

MEN'S OXFORDS at $2.15
Patent Leather and Kidskin—the two most sought-for leathers; welted soles; well made on good lasts.

MEN'S LACE SHOES at $1.90
Calf and Kid lace, with welted soles of oak leather; material, style and shape excel anything we know of, sold for $3 outside this store.

JOHN WANAMAKER

Another Bargain Friday.

To-morrow has its usual telling of unusual values. Profits all take a vacation for the day, and some of cost goes along to keep company. One dollar will get you what two dollars are in the habit of buying. Broken sizes have broken prices. Special buyings make possible special sellings.

If You Want a Charge Account we'll feel under obligation to have you open it here. Our books are ready to take your name—we are anxious to have an evidence of your steadfast patronage. This house extends credit to all, which other firms limit to a favored few.

Great Throngs Come to This Store on Fridays

And on other days, too—but the attendance here on Friday of each week is probably larger than that of any other New York establishment. Is this all by chance? Not a bit of it. It has been brought about through the offering of high-grade merchandise at prices that bespeak inviting values.

We have a keen interest in every piece of goods, in every article we show, and, no matter how low its price, it must measure up to a high standard of reliability.

Last Friday's business was overwhelmingly great and every individual found it to his or her advantage to share in the multitude of specials that were to be found in every part of this great store.

The crowds in the Economy Basement were highly enthusiastic in their praise of the extraordinariness of the values.

Each day we are exemplifying the possibilities of modern merchandising, and each day you are rewarding us with practical and substantial appreciation.

Wings, Wreaths, Etc.
Clearance of odd lots of Wings, Wreaths and Plant Feathers, left from our Wholesale Millinery Sale, 5c., 10c. and 25c.

Another Sale of Men's Furnishings.

In the Economy Basement.
Another clearance of odd and small lots and certain lines which we'll not continue to carry. The prices, of course, are ridiculously low; but value and cost are not considered when clearance is the object.
